2022-2023 ACTIVITY GUIDE

MIGHTY PEACE ESSENTIALS

MACKENZIE CAIRN

It was 1793 when Sir Alexander Mackenzie, famed North American explorer, overwintered at Fort Fork before starting his transcontinental journey to the Pacific. The Mackenzie Cairn, built in 1929, honours both the Fort Fork trading post and the place where Mackenzie's important journey began. Mackenzie stayed over the winter of 1792, and left in May 1793. This National Historic Site also provides a wonderful view of the Peace River, and an information kiosk offers detailed maps, drawings of the fort and early photos. Historic tours are available during the summer months. Find Out More >>

MURPHY'S FLATS

This scenic day use area running along the Smoky River is the perfect spot to enjoy an active day of hiking, fishing, kayaking or canoeing. The river may offer a natural sandy or rocky beach depending on the flow and height of the river water. The nearby Peace River Wildland Provincial Park offers amazing areas for mountain biking and hiking adventures. A leisurely stroll, rock collecting as well as wildlife and bird watching can be enjoyed by more gentle explorers. Pack a picnic so you can stay all day! There are firepits, tables and free firewood available. Find Out More >>

MISERY MOUNTAIN

Hike the stunning vistas of Misery Mountain in the Town of Peace River and enjoy a 360 degree view of the Peace River Valley and the agricultural land that surrounds the town. Find Out More >>

GRIMSHAW MILE ZERO HIGHWAY

By virtue of being the original starting point of Highway 35, which leads to the Northwest Territories, Grimshaw is referred to as Mile Zero of the Mackenzie Highway. The Historic Mile 0 Mackenzie Park and the Tom Baldwin Memorial Arboretum located at the corner of Highway 2 and Highway 2A are fully landscaped passive recreational interpretive park reflecting local and regional history. Find Out More >>

ST. AUGUSTINE MISSION CHURCH

About 13 km southwest of the Town of Peace River, the St. Augustine Mission Church sits in a tranquil space in the valley. Find Out More >>

SAGITAWA LOOKOUT

The Sagitawa Lookout is located just south of the Town of Peace River on Hwy 744 in Northern Sunrise County. Sagitawa is a Cree word meaning "where the rivers meet". The Lookout has a spectacular view of the Town of Peace River and the confluence of the Peace, Smoky and Heartrivers. The Lookout is complete with picnic area and historical information. Find Out More >>

CECIL THOMPSON PARK
